NU Ground Game Is Favored For Win

37,000 Fans Are Expected To See Wide Open Cyclone Aerial Game In Conference Opener

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

Iowa State passing is what Nebraska fears. Iowa State passing is what the Huskers will see in high quality and quantity Saturday at Memorial Stadium at 2 p.m.

All registered soothsayers say that Ringmaster Abe Stuber and his aerial circus, headlined by Richard Mann on the high trapeze, are expected to unlose a barrage from the airways.

An audience of 37,000, possibly more if the weatherman keeps his promise of dry, crisp weather, will be present to see how the Huskers' brawling ground game matches the Cyclone overhead attack.

"The score will depend on how our pass defense holds up," announced J. William Glassford, coach of the Huskers.

"We must stop the Nebraska ground attack with Reynolds and those fullbacks," countered Stuber.

After studying Husker line play against South Dakota and Oregon, Stuber is certain to depend on passing. For the Huskers have yielded only 13 first downs and 160 yards rushing in smashing the Sodaks and Ducks.

Fear Justified

Stuber's fear of Husker running is justified in the 678 yards and 50 first downs amassed thus far. Led by a pair of rampaging fullbacks in Ray Novak and George Cifra, halfback Bobby Reynolds and quarterback John Bordogna, the Husker offense has managed to control the ball in the first two games.

Husker blocking and running power should be improved with the addition of Bob Smith at right halfback. Smith missed the Oregon game because of a toe injury.

Mann, who hit 104 of 212 passes for 1,296 yards and fourth national ranking in 1951, is expected to be the main Husker problem Saturday. If he passes fail, the Cyclones will rely on a hard-running backfield, sparked by Fullback Paul Shupe and Halfback Dick Cherpinsky.

Two Touchdowns

A consensus of hotel lobbies and other points of argumentation points to at least a two-touchdown margin for the Huskers.

Iowa State enters the game with a patchwork lineup, disrupted this week by injuries and Big Seven rulings.

The Cyclones lost Jack Erickson, 220-pound transfer from Army, last week on a conference ruling.

A day later, Halfback Lee Spence rammed a knee and is now a doubtful participant.

Then Bob Shibley, the No. 1 linebacker, came down with the flu and may be unavailable, and Halfback Frank Congiardo may not suit up because of a leg injury, suffered against Illinois.

Byrus Back

One bright spot is the return of Bill Byrus, powerful right tackle, who is back after four weeks in elbow injury because of a dislocated elbow.

Nebraska will be seeking its 37th victory in the 49-year history between the schools.

Included in the crowd will be 1,000 Iowa State fans and students and the Cyclone marching band. This marks the official migration day for the Ames campus.

The Knot Hole section will be open for the small fry.

2 Teen-Agers Hurt In Mishap During Post-Game Traffic

An evening of football thrills nearly ended in tragedy Friday night—after a street filled with traffic, Sheila J. Murphy, 16, and Cathryn A. Penstone, 15, were struck by a car. Sheila's leg was broken. Cathryn suffered bruises.

The two girls and two girl companions were going east on S. walking on the south side of the street. At 27th and S. Cathryn, seeing an opening in the steady stream of after-game traffic, started to dash across the street. They were struck by a car driven by Wesley A. Miller, 28, 2948 N. 43rd, who was headed north.

Their two companions stayed on the curb.

Sheila, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Murphey, 913 Clark, was hospitalized at St. Elizabeth where she was reported in satisfactory condition. Cathryn, publisher of the Winterset, Ia., Madonian, was named vice-president and John B. Gebbie of the Bellevue, Neb., Press was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia. (P) — Emil Reutzel, publisher of the Neligh, Neb., News, Friday was named president of the Iowa-Nebraska Press Association.

J. C. Moore, publisher of the Winterset, Ia., Madonian, was named vice-president and John B. Gebbie of the Bellevue, Neb., Press was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

250-350 Airmen Expected Take NU Courses

"Self improvement and service improvement," the motto of the U. S. Armed Forces Institute, will mean a educational benefit to between 250 and 350 airmen following Lincoln Air Base reactivation.

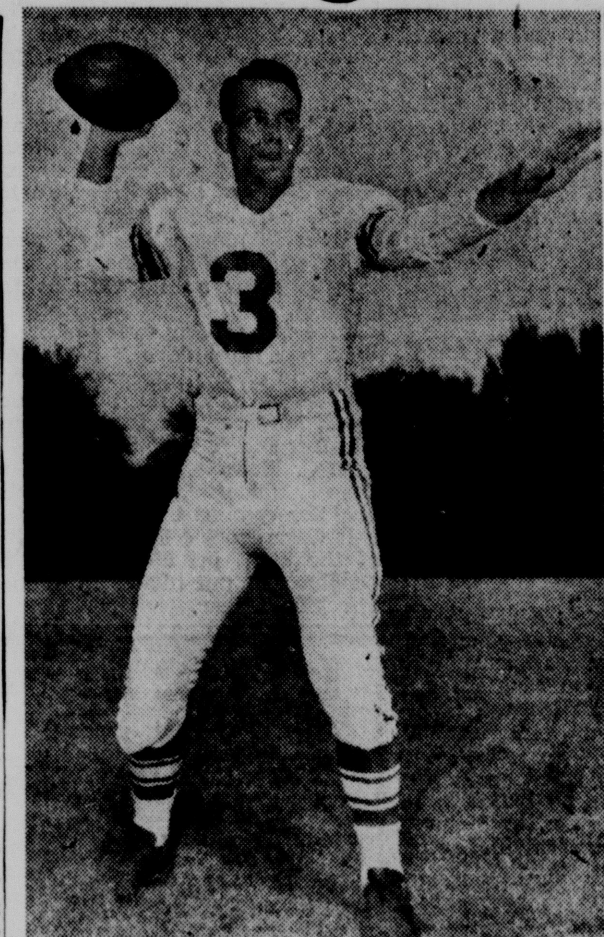

S. Sgt. Clayton Hughes of Lincoln, who is in charge of the education office at Forbes Field, Kan., estimates that S. Sgt. Hughes this number will choose courses at the University of Nebraska under the Institute's "Operation Bootstrap."

"Here is our problem: For some time, there have been a great many men in the Air Force who feel deficient in education," the sergeant explained. "This is partly due to young men enlisting without completing their education, because they fear the draft."

"In answer to this problem, the institute has a three-point voluntary education program consisting of 'on base' courses, correspondence study and actual college and university contact in off-duty time."

"The University of Nebraska is one of 46 colleges co-operating in the Institute's program. Each base appropriates funds to cover 75 per cent of the tuition of its applicants."

"This program is not to be confused with technical Air Force training," he emphasized. "The

New Homes Get Gas Service; 449 Conversions Approved

Central Electric and Gas Company next week will approve gas furnace conversions and will accept for service all new homes constructed on building permits issued up to and including Friday, Oct. 3.

Hal Thorson, Central District Manager, said the gas relief would come as the result of a release of gas to Lincoln from Northern Natural Gas Company of Omaha, wholesalers to Central and other towns in Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota and Kansas.

Northern is releasing a total of 40 million cubic feet of gas per day through the use of standby compressors. Lincoln's share of that total is reported to be 1,289,000 cubic feet daily.

300 Without Gas

New home permits issued to date and previously unable to get gas total about 300, according to Building Inspector Ed Vorhees. That is the number of permits issued in excess of the 600 new homes for which Central released gas last September.

The last release of gas for conversion purposes, according to Thorson, was Sept. 6, 1951. And at that time, he said, the number of conversions allowed still left a balance of about 1,200 seeking to convert to gas.

Since that time, another 800 applications have been added to the conversion list, Thorson said. Conversions under the new allotment will be allowed according to those applications on file the longest, Thorson said.

A complaint on policies of granting usage to home owners was registered earlier Friday by George Null, 830 So. 30th.

Null told The Star he filed application with the Gas Company in September of 1951 for gas privileges in his home. He said his 50-year old home is equipped with meter and facilities for gas usage "but I was refused service in favor of new home builders."

The Gas Company, said Null, was approached at least a dozen times since the application was made "in attempts to find out why my home couldn't be served."

Company officials, he said, "told me there were federal regulations against permitting the use of gas in a house which had a central heating unit of a type other than gas."

"Reason for the federal regulations," said Null, "was that there was a lack of gas pressure. I can't understand," he added, "why new homes could be served and the conversion to gas in our homes was against regulations."

Thorson answered the complaint with a statement that 6,385 conversion permits have been issued to home owners since 1940 and only 3,700 permits issued to new home builders.

There has been no discrimination against conversion applications, Thorson asserted. He added, however, "We want the city to grow. We want it to become a bigger and better city."

Lincoln High Is City Champ

Lincoln High surprised the experts Friday night with a 33-0 trouncing of the Lincoln Northeast Rockets in the annual city football championship clash. Pre-game forecasts had rated the game a tossup.

College View, the only other Lincoln team in action Friday night, lost a 28-7 decision to Wahoo. Stories on Sports Page 11.

But McCarthy drew a chorus of boos, intermingled with applause, when he commented: "As long as I represent you in the Senate, I shall continue to call them as I see them regardless of who happens to be President."

Eisenhower singled out President Truman's description of the Alger Hiss case as a "red herring" and Stevenson's recent crack at the Republicans for hunting Reds in the "bureau of wild life and fisheries."

The general did not name either Truman or Stevenson, but he cited the remarks as coming from men "about whom there is nothing great except their vanity and their complacency."

At the same time he warned, in an obvious reference to McCarthy, that the nation must defend itself against Red infiltration with "care" and "fairness" rather than indiscriminate attacks on its citizens, the GOP candidate declared.

"The right to question or challenge a man's judgment carries with it no automatic right to question his honor."

Eisenhower said domination of the nation's policies by men who scoffed at the menace of Red penetration in government "meant—in its most ugly triumph—treason to itself."

McCarthy told newsmen as he left the train that he was "not at all unhappy or disappointed" in the general's speeches through Wisconsin and his personal meeting with Ike. He said he did not consider anything like a "rebuke" to him.

The Senator said he was sure Eisenhower will "do the job of weeding Communists out of the government if he becomes President."

The total since the Korean fighting began is 197 killed, 659 wounded, and 93 missing.

Eisenhower, Meanwhile, Asks For McCarthy's Re-Election

Ike States Senator, He Disagree Only On 'Method'

By ROBERT E. CLARK

MILWAUKEE (INS) — Gen. Dwight Eisenhower shared a speaker's platform with Sen. Joseph McCarthy in Milwaukee Friday night and charged that Communists infiltrated every corner of the nation's government while administration leaders "sneered" at the Red menace.

The Republican presidential candidate delivered the most violent attack of his campaign on the Reds-in-government issue after a day of campaigning through Wisconsin with the Communist-hunting senator.

The general's speech before a cheering crowd of 10,000 in the Milwaukee Arena contained what appeared to be a thinly-veiled slap at McCarthy's controversial tactics in his attacks on subversives in government.

Laughs And Boos

But Ike urged, as he had before other Wisconsin audiences during the day, that McCarthy be sent back to the Senate to help in the "crusade" to clean up the government.

McCarthy addressed the throng before the general arrived and drew a burst of laughter with a remark that he couldn't report that he and Eisenhower "agreed on everything" in their talks Thursday night and Friday.

But McCarthy drew a chorus of boos, intermingled with applause, when he commented: "As long as I represent you in the Senate, I shall continue to call them as I see them regardless of who happens to be President."

Eisenhower singled out President Truman's description of the Alger Hiss case as a "red herring" and Stevenson's recent crack at the Republicans for hunting Reds in the "bureau of wild life and fisheries."

Taxpayers Underwrote Nixon Poll

WASHINGTON (P)—The campaign manager for Sen. Richard M. Nixon, GOP candidate for Vice President, has said Nixon used the franking privilege early this summer in polling Californians on whom they wanted the Republicans to nominate for president.

Murray Chotiner said he was not Nixon's manager at the time of the poll, so did not know its details. It had been reported that 23,000 letters were sent out under frank.

The franking privilege given congressmen allows letters using the frank to be mailed postage free.

Nixon was a member of the California delegation which was supporting California's Gov. Earl Warren for the presidential nomination.

Opinion of Chotiner

Chotiner told a reporter: "It is ridiculous for anyone to make a situation out of this."

Nixon has been the center of controversy over an $18,000 expense fund given him by California supporters.

In a nation-wide radio and television speech Sept. 28 Nixon said: "Every penny of it was used to pay for political expenses that I did not think should be charged to the taxpayers of the United States."

"I'm proud of the fact that the taxpayers, by subterfuge or otherwise, have never paid one dime for expenses which I thought were political and shouldn't be charged to the taxpayers."

In Berkeley, Calif., Mrs. Marjorie Benedict, Republican national committeewoman, said she received one of the letters, but never saw results of the poll.

"I don't believe they were ever published," said Mrs. Benedict.

"The letter was dignified and sincere and simply asked for the recipient's reactions and general thinking on second choice for President."

The San Francisco News said many backers of Warren sent "indignant protests" to Nixon for conducting the poll.

The News was reported the first newspaper to disclose Nixon's use of the frank for mailing the letters. It did not give results of the poll or quote the letter.

Postage on the letters amounted to $690, it added.

Polio Figures Show Decrease

Polio figures being reported to the state health department are showing a marked decrease to start off the month of October.

While 29 were reported on Wednesday, they dropped to 22 on Thursday and were down to 8 on Friday making the total for the year to date 1,682.

The new cases Friday included two from Douglas and one each from Burt, Butler, Cass, Cedar, Franklin and Wayne counties.

This follows the trend shown in past years that as soon as temperatures begin to drop so does the number of cases of polio.

Stevenson Uncorks New Criticism Of Taft

By FREEMAN FULBRIGHT COLUMBUS, Ohio. (INS) — Gov. Adlai Stevenson told an enthusiastic Ohio audience Friday night that "defense and inflation control" demand "top priority" and that national solvency is more important than new social security benefits.

Stevenson gave his views after winding up a day-long tour of the home state of Republican Sens. Robert Taft and John Bricker, both of whom were targets of his barbs.

Between 3,400 and 3,500 enthusiastic partisans whistled, yelled, and cow-belled a welcome to the Democratic presidential nominee when he spoke in the Franklin County Memorial Auditorium.

Every mention of Taft was greeted with boos.

The Illinois governor said Taft's "team lost the Chicago game but won the breakfast game in New York, and what's more he won it single-handed." He added:

"I understand they plan to play the third game in the White House unless they're all played out by Nov. 4."

The crowd also cheered Stevenson's attack on Bricker.

The crowd applauded heartily when the governor declared that "I am just as much opposed to socialized medicine as any doctor in this country."

Then he added:

"... We must find the means of solving our health problems in a constructive spirit and without, I hope, abuse and ill temper."

Stevenson said the nation's conservative party while the "Republicans... are behaving like the radical party—the party of the reckless and the embittered, bent on dismantling institutions which have been built solidly into our social fabric."

Stevenson was welcomed to Columbus by a throng which clogged Broad and High Streets, famed crossroads of the Ohio capital.

Pushing through the packed lobby of the Deshler-Wallack Hotel, the Stevenson party ran head-on into a din set up by supporters of both presidential candidates trying to outshout each other.

The governor, outlining his views on social legislation, pounded also at Ohio's other senator, Republican John Bricker, for the latter's statement that "the last vestiges of the new deal... must be destroyed."

Stevenson listed what he called the social gains of the past 20 years—slum clearance, old age pensions, rural electrification and the like, and asked: "Is this something we can permit the Republicans to wipe out to the last vestige?"

But the governor declared: "Even more important, candidly, than immediate further advances, such as I have sketched, is our national solvency."

"It is not just that a program is desirable; the question is also whether we can afford it without endangering something else, or, indeed, everything."

The top priority now is defense and inflation control. Social gains at the price of peace or a healthy economy, on which the whole world depends, will not be gains but frightful losses."

H-Bomb Speculation Follows Test Of Britain's New A-Weapon

Observers Cite Cloud, Two Blasts

By NATE POLOWETZKY
LONDON (P)—The explosion of Britain's first atomic weapon was described by British newspapers Friday as the most powerful blast the world has ever known. Some speculated the weapon was a hydrogen bomb.

Whatever the weapon, the orange-red flash and the rise of a ragged Z-shaped cloud in the Monte Bello Island proving ground off Australia's West Coast had placed Britain alongside the United States and Russia as a major atomic power.

There was no official confirmation that it was in fact the long-sought hydrogen bomb, which theoretically could have a force a thousand times or more greater than the most powerful nuclear fission weapon.

The London Daily Star reported "two of the scientists who saw the blast, Mr. William Mangini of Perth and Mr. V. A. Bailey of Sydney University, said it was possible the weapon was the world's first hydrogen bomb."

Papers stressed reports that there were two almost simultaneous explosions and indicated a belief the first was set off to generate the heat needed to detonate a hydrogen bomb.

They noted the atomic cloud, which rose to 12,000 feet, differed in appearance from the mushroom clouds of U.S. bombs.

Prime Minister Churchill jubilantly sent a "well done" message to the British scientists in charge.

The explosion gives Britain a better bargaining position for reopening the exchange of nuclear secrets with the United States begun while Churchill was running the government in World War II.

The United States later barred such exchanges with all nations—friendly or otherwise—under the U.S. Atomic Energy Act of 1946.

Demonstration Given On Farm Water System

GUIDE ROCK, Neb.—A sanitary farm water system was installed at the Ernest Sommerhalder farm near here, at public demonstration.

The 80 farmers attending saw the necessary steps in installing a water system.

E. A. Olson and M. L. Mumgaard, extension engineers at the College of Agriculture, described the pump installation and the construction of the above-ground pumphouse.

The outstanding feature of the system is the location of the pump, storage tank and motor above the ground in an insulated pumphouse. This enables the farmer to gain easy access to the installation to make necessary adjustments and repairs.

National Newspaperboy Day:

The Star's Best Carriers Are Honored

University of Nebraska track coach Ed Wier has presented eight city Star carriers with Inland Press Association awards in recognition of outstanding records on routes and in school.

Awards also went to five out-of-town Star carriers who, with the Lincoln youths, were honored in connection with the observance of National Newspaperboy Day, Saturday.

Sponsors of the annual day honoring carriers throughout the country are the American Newspaper Publishers Association and the International Circulation Managers Association.

Winners of the awards this year were newspaperboys judged in the top five per cent of the carriers on the basis of better than average records of service, selling and collecting, above average scholastic records, and at least six months of continuous service on route.

Lincoln Star award winners were Dwaine Mapel, 2134 Clinton; Fred Powell, 3428 P; Eugene Debus, 3045 No. 11th; Ronald Payne, 5330 Franklin; Melvin Greenwood, 5402 Cooper; Galen Anderson, 2795 So. 35th; Jerry Johnson, 2013 G; Stephen Nelson, 2667 Colonial Drive.

Out-of-town winners were Star carriers Orville Fangmeyer, Deshler; Willis Henrickson, Cresco; Gary Trunkholz, Eagle; Lon Hulen, Milford; Dennis Jantzen, Wymore.

Wier told the Lincoln youths at the presentation of their awards,

"You carriers are learning the same principles on your routes that we strive to instill on Nebraska's playing fields—to do your best whatever the task, and to fulfill your responsibilities to the best of your ability."

Introduced to Wier were parents of the award winners.

Some 1,000 local newspaper carriers and their substitutes are invited to attend a double feature movie Saturday at 9:15 a.m. at the State Theater in honor of the national observance. The event is sponsored by the Lincoln Newspapers and the Nebraska Theaters, Inc.

Also on Saturday, Gov. Val Peterson will entertain one outstanding carrier from each Nebraska daily newspaper at 11:30 a.m. at his office. The carriers will be his guests at a luncheon at the Governor's Mansion at noon.

The Star's representative to the luncheon is Stephen Nelson, 2667 Colonial Drive, who holds an outstanding route record as to increases and perfect service for the past 3½ years.

No Controversy NU Religious Workers Claim

Members of the Religious Workers Association of the University of Nebraska have expressed their view in an open letter to Chancellor R. G. Gustavson that there exists "no controversy between the administration of the University and them on the question of the Institute of Religion."

The letter, which followed reports of a supposed "religious debate" on campus, went on to say, "The original misunderstanding was based on possible misinterpretation of the bulletin of the Institute."

The resolution was passed by the association in a meeting following an earlier conference with the chancellor.

The association, composed of student pastors and religious workers at the University, expressed appreciation to the chancellor personally and to the University "for the co-operation which has been given us in the past."

Continued the letter: "We are confident that the cordial relationship will continue and increase."

"We recognize that the problem of relating religion and education is a difficult one and that there necessarily will be differences of opinion. We feel that these differences are honest and not irreconcilable and therefore would welcome every opportunity to explore areas of further co-operation."

The original meeting with Dr. Gustavson was called to discuss wording of the Institute bulletin which both the administration and student pastors recognized might imply that sectarian religious courses were being offered for credit and as a part of the curriculum at the University.

Perfume That Clings

Q—Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—V. B.

A—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only 1.85 plus tax at Toiletries... First Floor, MILLER & PAINE.

"AT THE CROSSROADS OF LINCOLN"

This Is On The House

"It is ridiculous for anyone to make a situation out of this," Murray Chotiner, Sen. Richard Nixon's campaign manager, is quoted as saying after revealing in an Associated Press story that Nixon had used the congressional franking privilege in polling Californians on whom they wanted the Republicans to nominate for President. In all, 23,000 letters were sent out under the frank.

It may or it may not be of consequence. It can be brushed aside as the tiniest of tiny leaks in government waste. But pieced in as a part of the story of a young Sir Galahad who has been charging up and down this country after dedicating himself to a crusade against corruption and Communism, this latest revelation ought to be sufficient to set a lot of people to sober thinking. We have not been getting a campaign from Gen. Eisenhower and Nixon appealing to people's intelligence, their hunger for facts, their craving for truth. We've been getting a daily diet of emotionalism. Remember the tear-jerking story of a hard boyhood, the sacrifices of a young man, his struggles to do the things he felt he ought to do but was unable to do because of a lack of money? Many of us, millions of Americans, know what that means because we do not always have the money to do what we'd like to do. And when that happens, somehow we manage to get along without the doing. But Nixon's tale was good for tears, unashamed tears coursing down the cheeks of men and women, good for an avalanche of telegrams, good enough for Gen. Eisenhower and the Republican high command.

But in between the rise and what Sen. Dick Nixon fervently hoped would be the fall of the final curtain, a lot has taken place.

For instance, in that tear-jerker, carefully-rehearsed, magnificently staged, Nixon's warm voice purred on the airwaves:

"Every penny of it (his private trust fund contributed by California millionaires) was used to pay for political expenses that I did not think should be charged to the taxpayers of the United States. I am proud of the fact that the taxpayers, by subterfuge or otherwise, have never paid one dime for expenses which I thought were political and shouldn't be charged to the taxpayers . . ."

Orderly Reduction

No issue in the presidential campaign comes closer to Mr. John Q. American and his wife than plans for tax reduction. In New York earlier, Gen. Eisenhower expressed the belief that 40 billion dollars could be lopped off the federal budget by 1955.

It should not call for a smart man to know that such a drastic slash in government spending—approximately 20 billion dollars every 12 months—would adversely affect American economy, possibly imperil the jobs of millions of men and women, and we are not talking about those holding federal jobs at this time. It would be impossible for American industry and business to absorb a loss of 40 billion dollars in spending (actually much more than this in the normal channel of trade) without shutdowns, darkened factories, and distress.

Gen. Eisenhower did a thing that is becoming a habit with him. After that first announcement in New York City, surrounded by his advisers there, he revised his sights. Now

It may have been important to Nixon's political ambitions to know which way the wind was blowing, especially in the light of the fact that Gov. Earl Warren of California was an earnest candidate for the Republican nomination for President, the California delegation was pledged to support Warren, and Nixon was a member of that delegation. It may have been so important to Nixon that the taxpayers should cheerfully bear the expense of sampling California opinion. Ordinarily it would be assumed that a pledged delegation to Warren was loyal to Warren, but Nixon did not seem to have a great deal of faith in Gov. Warren's bid for the presidency. Otherwise, why the shopping around?

Since his melodramatic nationwide tear-jerker, young Sir Galahad has clammed up. At Salt Lake City recently, a group of Utah newspapermen wanted to question him about where he got the $20,000 for the down-payment on his house in Washington. "Nuthin' doin'," Nixon said he had made his accounting and that was that. After Gov. Stevenson in unprecedented spirit had given the public his individual income tax reports for the last 10 years, Nixon indicated to the press he would not reveal his. And that was that. When Sir Galahad makes up his mind, that ends it.

The postage on these letters amounted to $690, a drop in the bucket, not even enough for a down-payment on a mink coat. But in the cases of hundreds of thousands of young people starting out married life, young people faced with high rents, the use of the congressional frank to sample California opinion may have been one of the burdens they should naturally expect to assume. Nixon voted against controls. He voted against public housing. He probably would have taken that attitude without reference to the private trust fund contributed in part by men interested in real estate.

If Sir Galahad will not make his income tax reports public, nothing can be done about it. That is up to him. There are a lot of questions, honest questions, relating to this young man that a great many people would like to ask in order to have the information they deserve. Instead of cold facts, it appears they will have to satisfy their hunger by gulping down a torrent of salty tears.

At the end of four years, he would like to see the federal budget cut to 60 billions, which should call for a progressive tax slash of 7½ billion dollars a year. The latter is not Gen. Eisenhower's original thought with reference to the federal budget—it reflects the thinking of "General" Bob Taft. We will give "General" Taft credit for being a little bit more down-to-earth, a little bit more realistic than Eisenhower was in the heady atmosphere of New York City's financial district.

All of this, of course, depends upon Stalin's behaving himself. Otherwise there is no sale. One thing the taxpayer may be interested in scarcely less than reduction of tax burdens is the manner of applying the projected savings to the individual's tax bill. Are there to be new loopholes for plush capital gains? Are the people who have been taking it in the neck in recent years to continue to take it in the neck in an increasing degree in order to provide tax relief for the swollen incomes?

Muscovites And 'Spaniards'

A strange new device is being employed by French Communists in the bitter struggle for control of the party's fortunes. One group has taken to calling members of the opposition "Spaniards."

This is a reference to those Red leaders who served in the Spanish civil war during the 'thirties. For many years this has been considered a mark of distinction, an act which stamped the ex-soldiers with an unassailable record of devotion to the Communist cause; now, however, participation in the Spanish conflict is reason for suspicion.

"Spaniards" have been gradually eased out of positions of authority in the satellite nations, and now their turn has come in France. Those Communists who never had been subjected to the "influence" of Spain, being blessed instead with training in Moscow, are moving to the fore. Thus does the Communist wheel of fortune spin.

The present Moscow line in France calls for a campaign of "national unity"—something like the "united front" period which tortured France in the years preceding World War II. The party is attempting to win support among Frenchmen of all classes, regardless of politics or religion. The "Spaniards," more devoted to a single channel of thought and operation, couldn't be expected to give full support to this program. The "Spaniards," therefore, are being pushed out on orders from Moscow.

No Saucers Over Russia

While this country continues to go through periodic and sporadic attacks of flying sauceritis, a Soviet astronomer says that the Russians are above such mundane matters. "No flying saucers have been seen over Russia," the Soviet scientist says, adding that our multitude of reports are the result of "sheer war psychosis."

Now there is no denying that many of the reports of objects in the skies could be written off as war hysteria, a bad case of nerves, or a secret longing for personal publicity. But the answer isn't that simple. After all, no one has seriously contended that the mysterious visitations are from Soviet Russia; indeed, the trend is definitely in the other direction—or up. If we are being visited, the spherical objects are more likely to be coming from another planet, or at least that seems to be the belief of most of our interested scientists.

It isn't any fear of the Red Army, or Red air force, or whatever else the Reds could throw against us that has caused the rash of reports on flying saucers. And if some resident of Minsk were fortunate enough to spot an unusual sight in the heavens, it might do the people of Russia some good. For one thing, it conceivably could take their minds off what is happening in that country, if only momentarily. For another, it would be wonderful to see how Pravda, the Communist newspaper, explained it away.

Joint Chiefs Differ On Korean War Plan

BRADLEY

TUNNER

WASHINGTON — The Joint Chiefs of Staff have given careful consideration to some plan by which they could end the long-drawn-out Korean stalemate. They fear that if the war drags on for another winter, the American public will become so apathetic that the Defense Department will be in an untenable position.

As a solution, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, air chief of staff, has been urging that American ground troops be pulled out of Korea altogether, and the ground war be turned over to American-trained South Koreans. The United Nations, he advises, could provide air support and supply equipment. Vandenberg argues this will leave the Chinese as the only foreigners in Korea and tend to unite the Koreans against the Chinese. Now, on the other hand, there is considerable Korean feeling against Americans.

Vandenberg also believes Korea might be protected through a public ultimatum by the United Nations that if Chinese aggression is renewed against South Korea, the Chinese mainland would be attacked by air and the Chinese coast would be blockaded by the Navy.

However, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs, does not agree with Vandenberg. Neither does Gen. Joe Collins, Army chief of staff, or to a lesser degree Adm. W. F. Felt. They argue that ground troops must remain in Korea until prisoners of war are exchanged.

Thousands of Americans in Communist POW camps, they say, must not be deserted.

At present, the only obstacle remaining in the true talks is the exchange of prisoners and the Chinese seem to have no intention of settling it. However, Gen. Bradley argues that as long as the talks continue, there is hope, and he is adamant that American boys in prison camps must not be left there.

There has been some discussion inside the Defense Department over forcing the Communist hand by blockading the Chinese coast. The Navy is all set to carry out this assignment, but the trouble is with our United Nations allies. They are dead set against it. Great Britain is especially adamant on the ground that a blockade might cause her to lose Hong Kong.

Defense Speed-Up — Henry Fowler, chief of the whole mobilization program, will soon announce that America now has enough new factories and machine tools to permit a big speed-up in mobilization. Fowler will say that because of these new factories we can reach our defense goals by 1954—the year of greatest danger from the Russians.

Hitherto we weren't expecting to be ready until 1955—one year after the period of greatest danger. But Fowler will say that if the administration and the Congress are willing to give the green light

ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

HAVING served his apprenticeship as a police reporter in Omaha before prohibition and in the hey day of the old Third Ward, the Sower is seldom shocked, disquieted or scandalized by sights around the Capitol.

However, our eyebrows lifted to such an extent that the skin on the bald head rolled all the way back this week.

Imagine our amazement and confusion, and the startled look of bewilderment on our face as we entered the office of Mrs. Harold Prince, chairman of the board of control and found the poised, good-looking and business-like chairman at her desk with a cob pipe gripped in her pearly teeth.

THE expression on our face must have been as much of a shock to her as her appearance was to us, as it was with difficulty she kept from laughing right out before she puffed out her cheeks and blew instead of drawing on the pipe.

From the bowl popped up a balloonlike elephant, symbol of her political party. While having been good enough friends of Harold and Mary Prince for several years and cognizant of their wonderful sense of humor, she caught the Sower in one of his duller moments and he was flabbergasted.

Always the perfect hostess, she recognized our plight and hastened to explain that the board was not getting political. An anonymous friend, probably Tom Dreda, third member of the board, had left the pipe for her and another for William Diers, vice-chairman and Democratic member of the board.

The Diers pipe, she explained, with the proper election year hot air blown through the stem erupts with a donkey, his party emblem.

EMORY SHAW, who has been one of the trials and tribulations that Harold Salter has had to bear all summer, finally suffered misfortune that made up to Salter for all the horrible suffering he has undergone since early spring. Salter emitted what on the bur-and spend the money, the United States will be prepared to meet any Russian threat.

Dewey and Nixon—Though Gov. Dewey is carefully staying in the background so Eisenhower won't be tagged a Dewey man, he keeps in close touch with the general by long-distance phone. Dewey was so worried over the Nixon furor that he asked friends across the country to wire their immediate reaction to Nixon's broadcast. (Dewey was among those who recommended Nixon for Veep.)

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Pravda's bitter attack on U. S. Ambassador George Kennan is the beginning of a campaign to force him out of Russia. The Kremlin knows that Kennan understands Russia all too well, and wants his brilliant reports to the State Department stopped at any cost.

The Navy's television-guided robot planes aren't the only guided missiles being tested in Korea. The Army also is experimenting with a top-secret guided missile under battle conditions, while the Air Force is training two guided-missile squadrons for Korea after the first of the year.

The Russians have started building long-range bomber bases along the ice-bound arctic shore of northern Siberia. This is just a short hop across the North Pole from Canada, and within easy range of Seattle, Detroit and Chicago.

The Russians have also started making daily weather flights across the North Pole. . . . the government will pay out more than $20,000,000 in crop insurance to farmers who lost crops during the summer drought.

Bob Morris, counsel for the McCarran Internal Security Committee, has been passing stuff to Sen. Nixon on Owen Lattimore and the Institute of Pacific Relations. Nixon is planning a big speech on Communism and the Truman administration. . . . Following the first deluge of mail on Nixon, the Republican National Committee is getting a lot of "morning-after" letters. Quite a few letter-writers were carried away by the first impact of the emotional broadcast. But now they want to know exactly where he got the $20,000 down-payment for his house. . . . A survey of Nixon sentiment shows that the women are a lot stronger for him than the men.

Truman is really sore at Ike. He has the father-son complex of the man who educated his son in the best schools and then found him marrying the daughter of his worst enemy. Originally Truman thought that even if Ike ran as a Republican, foreign policy would not be an issue and the country would be on an even keel. Now he has changed his mind.

Charley Taft, brother of the Senator, made the mistake at the Delaware, O., fair the other day of telling 40,000 persons that this was the first fair he had ever attended. (Copyright, 1952, by Bell Syndicate)

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

Rich The Moments, Rich In Blessing

Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the Cross I spend.
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying friend.

Here I rest, forever viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

Truly blessed is the station,
Low before His Cross to lie,
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in His languid eye.

Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
Fix my thankful heart on Thee.
Till I taste Thy full salvation,
And Thine unveiled glory see.

By HORACE B. POWELL

The Cross of Christ has been a source of comfort to Christians in sorrow for more than 19 centuries. The Rev. Walter Shirley, pastor-poet of Ireland, found solace there in a time of soul-testing tragedy and humiliation; it was out of this personal tribulation that his beautiful hymn of the Cross, "Sweet The Moments, Rich In Blessing," was born.

Mr. Shirley was serving at the time as rector of a small church at Loughree, Ireland. His brother, the Earl of Ferrars, a fellow of questionable character, quarreled one day with an aged servant and in a fit of rage killed the old man. He was arrested and, after months of wearying and mortifying waiting, was convicted and executed.

The strain of his brother's trial and death told heavily on the young clergyman. When the ordeal was over he returned to his parish and tried to forget his grief in his ministry. One day he got hold of some verses which had been written several years earlier by the Rev. James Allen, an itinerant preacher. He began to revise them, and finally rewrote them completely to make his popular hymn. It is a Lenten favorite today in all churches.

Happy Birthday

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Happy birthday to you and your many associates at The Lincoln Star. Your 50th anniversary is a great milestone and we hope that there will be many happy returns.

Lincoln is one of the few fortunate cities of its size left in these United States with two daily newspapers with opposite editorial viewpoints. This is a healthy situation, which is improved only by the fact that both Lincoln newspapers generally can be found shoulder to shoulder on those subjects basically important to the growth and development of this city and state.

Congratulations to The Lincoln Star.

The Crusade

Los Angeles, Calif.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Gen. Eisenhower's crusade to return government to old-fashioned standards of honesty and morality has just been vetoed 350 to 1 by the crusaders in response to Sen. Nixon's appeal for amnesty for taking $18,000 from men in whose interests he voted as a senator.

The grand objective of his crusade now is to return the party faithful to the post offices—same as London's.

Third Party Platform

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Although your readers may not know it, since publicity of the fact has been slight, if any, a third political party held a convention in Chicago last July and nominated a ticket, the Progressive party, if you please. But though this is a part of the boasted "free world," the laws work to prohibit registering as a Progressive or voting a Progressive ticket. The two-party system must be preserved.

I don't know whom the Progressive party nominated, if they made nominations at all, though I did adopt a platform which I could personally endorse. That platform includes an immediate cease-fire in Korea, a peace conference of the five great powers, stopping rearmament of Germany and Japan, outlawing atomic and germ warfare, abolishing trade barriers between the USA and the Soviet Union, China and eastern Europe.

O. BYRON COPPER

His Choices

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The following poem expresses my political preferences:

I'm going to vote for Pojo
And Andy Gump for Veep;
There's too much hocus-focus,
Too much of hide-and-seek;
Too much a side-sag course, by heck,
Too much both sides of mouth;
It makes a fellow dizzy when
They go both north and south.

I'm going to vote for Pojo
And Andy Gump, you bet;
They always see the best in life.
Our opposites they're when
They are the first to greet us
In the morning with their cheery
They know about our troubles
And just where we're weak at heart.

I'm going to vote for Pojo
And Andy trailing 'long;
They need no explanations,
Not guilty of doing wrong.
But there's a job I first must do,
My duty stands out clear—
Have what the New Deal brought to us
And treasonous those who meet.

Hildreth Officers Unhurt From Gunfire

Trio Blast Safe Open; $466 Gone

HILDRETH, Neb. (AP)—Three safecrackers escaped with $466 in cash and checks after blasting open the safe of the Farmers Union Store here Friday and firing on town officers.

Night Marshal Gus Bebensee and Police Chief Herman Rickels ducked a total of five shots.

Bebensee was standing in front of the store when he heard an explosion. He opened the front door and turned on his flashlight. Two shots greeted him.

Rickels joined Bebensee moments after the blast. The two ducked three more shots fired as three men fled the vicinity in a motor vehicle.

The safe was blown with what appeared to be nitroglycerin or some similar type of explosive.

Interrupted by the night marshal and confronted with tear gas from the safe, the intruders failed to obtain a sizable amount of currency in the safe, according to Franklin County Sheriff Lloyd Davison.

Industrial Development Plan At Norfolk Draws Attention

Norfolk's efforts to achieve a better balanced economy through industrial development were cited in the monthly publication of the Nebraska Resources Division.

"In its effort to expand industrially, the city's business leaders have chosen to organize, not one, but two, industrial development corporations to finance the acquisition of sites and the construction of buildings," the publication reported.

The Norfolk story is one of a series about Nebraska's cities and what they are doing to expand industry.

Norfolk ranks tenth among the cities of the state in population, with 11,335 in 1950.

It is one of the state's largest inland livestock markets, with sales averaging more than 18 million dollars annually.

A flour mill, founded about 1869, is one of the oldest in the state.

The corporations organized to attract new industry to the city are the Norfolk Industrial Corporation and the Greater Norfolk Corporation.

Honored Fort Crook 'Mother' Dies At 73

OMAHA (AP)—Mrs. Florence C. Banner, 73, of South Omaha, who for more than 25 years regarded herself as "mother" to the soldiers of old Fort Crook, died at her home.

In 1943 Mrs. Banner was honored on a national radio broadcast for her efforts on behalf of service men. In 1921 she began regular visits to the Fort Crook hospital, taking flowers, magazines and usually jelly made by her neighbors. In World War II she originated "cake night" at the Fort, providing delicacies baked by hundreds of women every Thursday night. In 1942 men at the fort gave her a special gold medal in honor of her work.

'GOP Out To End Public Power' — Truman

Labels Ike Old Guard's Spokesman

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP)—President Truman invaded California in his stop-Eisenhower campaign Friday, firing away at the general as "the spokesman for the Old Guard GOP," and forecasting an end to public power development "if the Republicans succeed in grabbing off the White House and the Congress next November."

At stake were California's 32 electoral votes, which Truman captured for himself four years ago and now is fighting, in a war at the whistle stops, to win for Gov. Adlai Stevenson and the Democratic ticket.

After pausing to inspect mighty Shasta Dam—which waters the farms and powers industries in the Golden State's Central Valley—Truman declared at Redding that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has removed any doubt that the Republicans would wreck the public power program if they got the chance.

"The Republican Party platform hints at this intent," Truman said in a prepared speech. "Their candidate for President now has confirmed it and their record in Congress bears him out."

This was not Truman's first assault of the day on Eisenhower as a candidate. Earlier, at Klamath Falls, Ore., the President charged that despite his "five-star glitter," Eisenhower abandoned every one of his liberal principles as soon as the political going got rough.

Truman said Eisenhower has surrendered to the "Old Guard" on every issue, from public power to national defense, and he said the power of the "Old Guard" is so great that liberal Republicans are being driven out of the party.

Striking a similar note at Redding, Truman said he felt sorry for "that little band of liberal Republicans"—men like California Gov. Earl Warren and Oregon Sen. Wayne Morse — "who dreamed that the general would become their champion."

They must find it hard, the President said, to listen to what Eisenhower has to say these days.

NEW ENVOY—Sir Roger Makins, 48-year-old career diplomat and economist, has been named Britain's ambassador to the United States. He succeeds Sir Oliver Franks, British envoy in Washington since 1948. (AP Wirephoto Friday Night.)

Insurance Field Encroachments Hit In Crosby Speech

FAIRBURY (AP)—A "strong and adequate State Insurance Department" will counter the argument that federal control of the insurance industry is needed in Nebraska, in the opinion of Robert B. Crosby, GOP nominee for governor.

In remarks delivered during the Republican Campaign Caravan stop at Fairbury Friday Crosby said if elected he will make every effort to cooperate with the insurance profession to build such a department. "The federal government itself has entered largely into the insurance field," he said, "notwithstanding the fact that America has enjoyed through free enterprise the greatest development of insurance protection the world has ever seen. We do not need the blight of government encroachment in the field of insurance, and citizens should express their opposition."

DEMOCRATS

OXFORD, Neb. (INS)—Walter R. Raacke, Democratic candidate for governor, declared in Oxford Friday that "the rights and privileges we enjoy today were not easily won, but they could easily be lost through neglect and indifference."

Near the windup of a week-long tour of the state's southwestern counties, the Central City attorney made appearances at Beaver City, Arapahoe, Holbrook and in Red Willow County. He spent the night at McCook and will finish up his tour Saturday with a swing through Hitchcock, Dundey, Chase and Hayes counties.

TOKYO (Saturday) (INS)—Air Force Secretary Thomas K. Finletter disclosed today that American air power in Korea has been boosted 50 per cent and said he would not recommend withdrawal of any U. S. forces from the embattled peninsula.

Finletter, here after a front-line inspection tour, took an apparently opposite view from the Republican presidential candidate on American participation in the 27-month-old war.

Dwight D. Eisenhower was reported as saying that the U. S. should let Asians do the fighting and that South Korean soldiers should be trained to take over the front-line fighting in Korea.

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) Sen. Robert A. Taft has called Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, a representative of left-wingers "if not a left winger himself."

He bitterly attacked the foreign policy of the administration in a prepared speech, and said election of Stevenson would mean "a continuation of the wavering, unstable, pro-Communist philosophy that has almost brought this country to destruction."

Catholic, Public School Unity Is Urged

Teachers' Institute Is Held Here

About 150 parochial school teachers of the Diocese of Lincoln were urged Friday afternoon to work toward unity among Catholic and public schools by the Most

Rev. Louis B. Kucera, bishop of Lincoln. Addressing the closing session of the 17th annual Parochial School Teachers Institute at the Lincoln Hotel, the bishop stressed that "unity does not mean uniformity," and that "Catholic or private schools have obligations toward the tax supported schools."

"As citizens we must be interested in the improvement of all kinds of American education," Bishop Kucera continued.

He told the group that "secular and religious learning must be kept in proper balance," and that "religious education should not be used as an excuse for neglecting the secular subjects."

Social Studies Discussed
Representatives from 32 grade schools, six junior high schools and eight high schools attended the conference.

In the morning session, the Very Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Quigley, superintendent of schools, Diocese of Pittsburgh, Pa., discussed the place of social studies in elementary schools.

The superintendent told the teachers that social studies are necessary "in order to understand better the men and women who live in their environment."

The object of social studies, he continued, is "to make available such information and develop such ideas and skills that will enable men to live together in freedom and security and to pursue the greatest degree of happiness."

Help Student
In order to achieve a balance between freedom and security, which he called "contrary," teachers must use a reference and "framework of the divine law," the speaker continued.

Discussing "A Concept of Guidance," Don Twiford of the State Department of Vocational Education, said that teachers must "help the individual student go from the place he is now to the place where his interests lie."

He stressed the importance of "individual inventory" for each student in order to determine his interests and achievements.

Other speakers at the one-day meet included Anna Smrha, State Department of Maternal and Child Health, who discussed "Nutrition for Children," and the Rev. Clement Green, Associate editor of the Southern Nebraska Register, who spoke on "Around the World in Pictures."

Sanitary District Straightening Plans For Middle Creek Hit Snag

Richard J. Lilly, property owner along Middle Creek, has thrown a wrench into plans by Sanitary District 1 to straighten the creek three miles west of 1st.

Lilly informed the District Board that he would sustain definite damages to his property if the District's plans are carried out. Lilly owns land planted in asparagus about one-half mile east of the proposed straightening.

If the bends were taken out of the upper reaches of the creek, Lilly declared, it would send the water down on his property much faster. Lilly also said there were two other property owners who have asparagus planted adjacent to his land and that they were opposed to the straightening.

The District's plans were approved by C. H. Carney who lives on property containing the controversial creek bends. His property is flooded by the creek every year, he said, and the District's plans would materially reduce or completely do away with that condition.

District Engineer Walter B. Coale told the board that if they were going to listen to the objections that he was ready to recommend abandonment of the project.

"If we had first consulted with and listened to Ashland," he pointed out, "there would have been no flood control work through Lincoln."

Ashland has contended that the District's work on Salt Creek through Lincoln has sent the water down to them faster and thus created a greater flood threat to their town.

One District board member, George Knight, stated he was not in favor of going ahead with Middle Creek plans until its certain that the increased flow of water from above can be handled in the lower reaches of the stream.

The board held up final action on the work until other property owners living below the proposed improvement could be contacted.

In other action, the board abandoned tentatively approved plans for construction of a sewer along

Non-Striker Dies Following Beating

CHICAGO (INS)—A non-striking employee of International Harvester Co. who crossed a picket line to report for work was fatally beaten within half a block of his Chicago home.

Victim of the slugging was 52-year-old William Foster, who had worked for the company for 27 years.

A janitor found Foster lying unconscious on the street. He was rushed to a hospital, but died four hours later of a fractured skull.

Police said witnesses told of seeing a man running from the slaying scene carrying a three-foot-long lead pipe. None of the witnesses could describe the assailant in detail, however.

Harvester officials immediately offered a $10,000 reward for capture of the killer or killers.

Police said the slaying took place on the north side of Highway 6 between 49th and 44th. Engineer Coale was authorized to study the feasibility of a sewer to the north with branch lines to serve the highway frontage.

Coale said the grade was too low for construction of an adequate sewer along the highway.

Allie, Black Will Start Again Today

Bums Get 2-1 Edge As Roe Trips Yanks, 5-3

NEW YORK (INS)—It will be Allie Reynolds for the Yankees and Joe Black for the Dodgers—the same pair who opened the World Series at Ebbets Field Wednesday—in today's fourth game at Yankee Stadium. Black won the opener, 4 to 2.

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS)—Reports of the impending assassination of Brooklyn's baseball championship hopes were discovered to be at least a bit premature. The Bums nonchalantly knocked off the Yankees, 5-3, to take the lead in the World Series by two games to one.

The Yanks were destroyed by the pitching of Brooklyn Southpaw Preacher Roe, the hitting of Jackie Robinson and PeeWee Reese, and the catching of Yogi Berra. Yogi, their own pride and despair, probably did the most damage.

He muffed a pop fly in the eighth, an inning which saw the Dodgers take a 3-1 lead. In the bottom half of the same inning he belted a fierce home run into the overcast right field customers among the crowd of 66,698, to shave the Brooklyn margin to 3-2.

But in the ninth, Yogi abysmally permitted a slant by Red Hot Flicker Tom Gorman to tear through his glove and ricochet off his shinguard. Reese and Robinson raced home while Yogi lumbered unhappily to the backstop in search of the ball.

Old Jawn Mize, playing probably the last baseball of his life, hit a pinch home run in the last half of the ninth, and that made poor Yogi feel worse than ever. For if those two cheap Dodger runs had not come home on the strength of his passed ball, Mize's profound blow—the first he ever hit in a Series—would have tied the score at 3-3.

"12." But there was no question that the Bums deserved to win this one, a game which may prove even more heartening to them than Relief Thrower Joe Black's fine victory in the first game of the series. They outthrew the Yanks 11 blows to six, pitched perfectly whereas the Yanks committed two official blunders and several other errors of omission, and ran the bases better. Reese and Robinson pulled off a first class double steal to put themselves in scoring position before Yogi proved porous.

This is a series in which it doesn't appear to be good policy to take the lead. It was the Yankees' turn. In the second inning Roe walked Hank Bauer and then, with two outs and Hank on second, was ordered to pass Billy Martin in order to get to Lopat, something less than a menacing figure at the plate.

But with the count at 3-and-2, Lopat drilled a fine single to center, scoring Bauer. It was hit well enough to bar him from the pitchers' union.

The Dodgers tied it as soon as they could get to bat. Carl Furillo sliced one down the right field foul line. The ball hit the running track and bounced into the hand of an intrepid fan—for a double. Reese bunted Carl safely to third and Robinson brought him home with a long fly to Mickey Mantle.

Brooklyn went to the fore in the fifth, an inning in which the bat of Preacher Roe played a subtle but telling role.

Billy Cox led it off with a single to left, after which Roe laid down a splendid sacrifice. With two away and Cox on second, Reese lifted a blooper just over Billy Martin's head and into short right, scoring Cox with the run that gave Brooklyn a 2-1 edge.

Wahoo Hits Viewman Crew, 28-7

Lincoln Star Special
WAHOO—The College View Viewman, who base their offensive attack on the running and passing of Jim (Lefty) Carlson found themselves without a star Friday night and dropped a 28-7 decision to the Wahoo Warriors.

Carlson, along with Wahoo's John Fujian, were ejected when the two exchanged words in a temper flare-up only two minutes after the game started. Before Carlson went out, the Viewman had racked up two first downs, but after his departure the Hill-toppers' attack stalled.

Vinnie Lanik scored in the first period on a 12-yard jaunt around end, capping a 32-yard drive. The march came after a pass interception, one of two Warrior steals of the evening.

Chapek scored in the second quarter after recovering on the CV 28 and running to the three.

Lanik scored again in the third on a 23-yard pincup play. Leonard Lindgren heaved a short shovel-pass to Dan Roberts who scored from the three-yard line in the third quarter to cap the scoring.

College View got started in the final canto, scoring on a 27-yard Woody Oaks-to-Billy Thierstein pass play. Oaks plunged for the point.

The Viewman threatened twice again in the final quarter, only to run out of downs on the Wahoo four- and six-yard lines. College View 0 0 0 7-7 Wahoo 28 7 0 0-28

COLUMBUS — A 19-year Don Potter-to-Bill Hockenberger pass in the fourth quarter and Harlan Pette's conversion pulled the Columbus Discoverers from behind and gave them a 7-7 tie with Hastings in a Big Ten game here Friday night.

After the two teams had held each other scoreless in the first half, Barton Daugherty plunged over from the three-yard line in the third quarter for a Tiger TD after a pass interception on the CHS 20.

Daugherty added the point on a smash. Jim Murphy, Jerry Karlin and Charles Speice were bearcats in the line for Columbus, while Daugherty shone as both a line-backer and a top ball-carrier for Hastings. Line score:

Hastings 0 0 0 7-7
Columbus 0 0 0 0-7
Hastings scoring: TD—Daugherty, PAT—Daugherty (placement).
Columbus scoring: TD—Hockenberger, PAT—Pette (placement).

Lincoln High Oval Bulging At Its Seams For Inter-City Grid Tilt

By JIM CLARK
Star Sports Staff Member

THE Lincoln High oval was bulging at its seams Friday night as some 8,000 cheering, howling grid fans turned out in force for the annual inter-city classic between the Links and the Northeast Rockets.

Gaining momentum with every play, the chanting that had its birth long before the opening gun was still ringing in the stadium air as the last person filed from the double doors. But as is the case in any game, there was the joyous clamoring that only the winner can give out with, and then there was that dreary slumber that befalls only those on the short end of the count.

Contrary to the last inter-city tilt held on the oval, it was the Red and White clad pepsters that were doing most of the shouting at the game's end. With the Links rolling to a 21-0 half-time edge and then running the count to 33-0, the only consolation the Rocket followers could offer was the fact that they had filed out of this same oval two years previous with a 25-0 victory under their belts.

Regardless of the reading on the scoreboard, there was never a dull moment on the west sidelines as a whole fleet of Rocket cheerleaders—Peggy Mathers, Colleen Turner, Norma Converse, Virginia Hudson, Bobbie Wood, Emily Frost and Sharon Anderson—kept the Black and White followers ranting with "Hold That Line" and "We Want a Touchdown."

Lincoln's peppy cheerleaders had a whale of a time yelling—and they had a lot to yell about. Directing the Links' lung activity were Mimi Gordon, Patsy Jordan, Beverly Jacobs, Helen Hatcliff, Nancy Fleming, Sharon

Peru Trounces Chadron, 47-7

PERU, Neb. (AP)—A crew of freshmen who got their chance while injured regulars sat it out on the bench, led the way to a 47-7 Peru victory over Chadron here Friday night.

Star of the freshman show was Bill Allen, a chunky little speedster who scored two touchdowns in the third quarter. He scooted 76 yards for one.

Another fresh standout was Peru's John Everett who intercepted a Chadron pass and ran it back 30 yards to set up the last Peru score.

Bob Seifert whipped over at close range for Chadron's second period counter.

THROUGH some 1,200 University students marched through the campus, downtown Lincoln and ended on the steps of the Student Union Friday night in a spirited rally for the Iowa State game.

The trek started in front of the Coliseum and wound past fraternity and sorority row, picking up enthusiastic fans carrying banners with names of Greek organizations and words of praise for the football team.

The mob then proceeded to 13th and "O" Streets where Yell King Ira Epstein informed the momentarily disappointed fans that a city ordinance prohibited a rally on downtown streets.

Momentum gained as the crowd moved to the Union. Yells of "We're going to win" and "We're going to beat Iowa State" echoed about all during the procession.

At the Student Union, Epstein first introduced Center Verli Scott to the group.

Scott said that he was happy to see so many people out to support the team. "The team was thrilled to see the reception last week," Scott said, "and to see all the spirit."

Scott concluded by saying, "We'll be rocking and socking Saturday afternoon."

33-0 Victory Is Largest In 12 Years Of Rivalry

By WAYNE PANTER
Star Sports Staff Member

LINCOLN High's state champion gridders, paced by a workhorse back who in the past had seen his teammates take the biggest share of the limelight, Friday night thundered over cross-town rival Northeast, 33-0, in the most decisive victory ever rung up in the 12-year history of the two Capital City schools.

Don Erway, 174-pound senior halfback, was the key man as the Links cemented their bid for a second consecutive state title. Erway hurled three touchdown passes and capped his performance by galloping 55 yards for a fourth TD against the outmanned Rockets.

The erstwhile blocking back battled 1,000 in the aerial department on tosses of 25, 12 and 25 yards as Ends Bob Barnett and LeRoy Butcher gobbled in the ball in the bewildered Rockets' end zone. Barnett tallied the first and third Link TDs while All-Stater Butcher notched the second.

In the rushing department, Dick McWilliams and Ted King, along with Erway, contributed the bulk of the yardage. McWilliams scored coln offensive cold and forced a punt.

Taking the ball on their own 45, Northeast, with Junior Thomas, Ron Steele and Ken Forbes alternating on drives into the line and end sweeps, rolled swiftly to the Red and Black 35, where the Links held for downs.

Again forced to punt, Lincoln got its first opportunity with a little more than five minutes gone when Barnett recovered Forbes' partially blocked punt on the Rocket 25.

Two plays later Erway pitched

... Illini, Gophers Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—College football muscles back into the World Series-dominated sports scene Saturday with an outstanding collection of matches headed by the Illinois-Wisconsin and Michigan-Stanford clashes.

For matchmaking, the collision of second-ranked Illinois and eighth-ranked Wisconsin at Madison rates top billing. For national spectator interest, Michigan and Stanford comes first. The 4 p.m. (CST) intersectional tilt from Palo Alto, Calif., will be telecast from coast to coast.

It's only the first Saturday in October but the Illini and Badgers may come close to settling the Big Ten championship and the conference's Rose Bowl representative. The Illini made the trip to the West Coast last Jan. 1 and can't go to the next game. But the Badgers can and would love to. The game is rated a toss-up. The Illini warmed up for the big one by belting Iowa State, 33-7, last Saturday while Wisconsin bashed Marquette, 42-19.

The Michigan-Stanford game is also rated an even affair. The Wolverines were whipped by Michigan State's No. 1 outfit last week, 27-13, while Stanford edged Washington State, 14-13. More fans, via TV, will watch Bob Mathias, Stanford's fullback, in action than ever saw him compete in his specialty, the decathlon. The world's greatest athlete has been improving right along and he may give the millions of fans a great show.

In addition to the Michigan-Stanford affair, there's a flock of other intersectional games on the menu along with a banner batch of important intra-conference duels.

Michigan State journeys to Portland to take on Oregon State, sixth-ranked Georgia Tech meets Southern Methodist at Dallas; Army faces seventh-ranked Southern California at Los Angeles; fourth-ranked California visits Minnesota at Minneapolis and 12th-ranked Villanova takes on Detroit in the Motor City.

The top game in the south sends 11th-ranked Tennessee against on-surgin Duke, ranked tenth, at Durham. Purdue and Ohio State, two other contenders for the Big Ten title, meet at Columbus.

In the East, the major conflicts pit Navy against Cornell at Ithaca and Dartmouth against Penn at Philadelphia.

Maryland, the nation's No. 3 eleven, will tussle with Clemson. Tenth-ranked Kansas enters surprising Colorado which tied Oklahoma in a Big Seven contest at Lawrence.

Other major games on the Saturday card include Boston U. at Marquette, Vanderbilt at Northwestern, Cincinnati at Tulsa, Iowa at Indiana, Iowa State at Nebraska, Missouri at Kansas State, Wichita at Bradley, South Dakota at North Dakota.

West Point Latest Pender Victim, 35-0

Lincoln Star Special
PENDER—The Pender Pendragons raced to their third straight Husker Conference win and fourth win of the season Friday night as they blanked West Point, 35-0. The Pendragons are still basking in an untouchable goal line for the season.

Bob Mittelstat started things off in the first period when he broke loose to score on a 20 yard run. Ronnie Bush added a second period tally when he took a 12-yard pass in the end zone from Bruce Miller.

In the third period Mittelstat ran over from the eight and then hit Loren Slaughter with a 15-yard touchdown pass in the fourth. Alvin McGuire added the final tally when he scooted over center for eight yards.

Benson Nips Tigers On Stolen Ball Play

Lincoln Star Special
FREMONT — Omaha Benson's Erick Olson broke up a tight defensive game here Friday night when he stole the ball from Fremont's Bob Hansen and jaunted to pay dirt to give the Bunnies a 6-0 verdict over the Tigers.

Fremont threatened only once in the game that was marked by crisp tackling and a volley of punt returns. In the second quarter, the Tigers took the ball on their own 40 and marched goalward before losing the ball on downs on the Bunnies six-yard stripe.

Bill Letzkus for Fremont and Erney Mink of Benson were the defensive gems of the evening.

Berg Conducts Hillcrest Clinic

Miss Patty Berg, one of the nation's top women golfers, was in Lincoln early this week-end conducting a clinic Friday at Hillcrest Country Club.

Last Sunday, Miss Berg was beaten out in the finals of the women's open at San Antonio by Louise Suggs.

Patty believes that women's professional golf is here to stay. "The game is growing—people like to come out to watch us."

She named Babe Zaharias as the best woman golfer, and 24-year-old Betsy Rawls as the best young pro.

ORD—The Ord Chanticleers rang up their season's first win Friday night by defeating previously unbeaten Albion, 20-13.

John Douthit started the Chanticleers on their way to victory when he hit Verl Nelson in the end zone with a 35 yard pass. Before the first quarter had ended, Douthit added another Ord tally when he burst over from the five yard stripe. Duane Wolf booted both extra points.

Sherm Smith, the 130-pound scabbard that provided most of Ord's offensive spark, scored the clincher in the third period when he went around right end for 10 yards.

Albion picked up a tally in the third when Don Carver hit John Beckman on a 35-yard pass play. Beckman scored again in the fourth period on a five yard run.

'Hawks, Buffs Take Spot-light

LAWRENCE, Kas. (AP)—Colorado's powerful single wing Buffaloes and the versatile Kansas Jayhawks will clash here Saturday in a game of extra importance in the Big Seven championship race.

Kansas, with two intersectional victories to its credit, will be making its first league start.

Colorado played defending champion Oklahoma to a 21-21 tie in the initial Big Seven game a week ago.

Both the Buffaloes and Jayhawks have high hopes of winning this one which is expected to draw 30,000.

The Jayhawks, a touchdown favorite, are expected to depend heavily upon the triple threat talents of Quarterback Gil Reich.

Tailback Zack Jordan is key man in Colorado's plans.

Little Woody Shelton, who ran Kansas ragged as Colorado won the 1951 game 35-27, will be ready to start at right half after missing the Oklahoma game because of injuries.

Doane Rushes By Weak Midland

CRETE, Neb. (AP)—Powerful Doane, led by Freshman Halfback Don Crowder, roared by Midland, 61-19, Friday night.

Crowder scored three touchdowns, one on a 69 yard run in the third period.

Arland Schultz scored two touchdowns and four conversions for the winners ripping off an 81 yard run in the final period for 6 points.

Another freshman, Don Winter, scored two of Midland's touchdowns.

Doane led 26 to 7 at the half.

Miami Falls To Alabama, 21-7

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Alabama's hard-charging backs, led by Bobby Marlow, carried the Crimson Tide to a smashing 21-7 victory over the youthful but highly regarded Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl Friday night.

The game was rated a tossup, but Alabama's rugged forces convinced 53,916 fans—the biggest football crowd in the South this season—that the new Miami team with its many freshmen and sophomores is still a year away from the big time.

After spotting the Hurricanes a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter, the Tide's attack troops took charge. They tied the game before half-time and swept to the front in the third period, while their defense held Miami safely in check.

Marlow scored the tying and winning touchdowns, both on one-yard smashes.

Heart Attack Claims Harness Race Star

LINCOLN, Ky. (INS)—Seper F. Palin, 74, one of the greatest drivers in the history of American harness racing, died Friday in Lexington of a heart attack.

St. Bonaventure Better Seward

Lincoln Star Special
SEWARD—St. Bonaventure of Columbus squeezed out a 12-6 win over the Seward High Bluejays here Friday night, and but for a penalty in the fourth quarter the Jays might have had a tie.

Jim Hoshor skirted end for 15 yards and a first-quarter TD for the Bonnies in the first period, and Don Schmid got away for a 45-yard scoring scamper in the second quarter to give the visitors their score.

Quarterback Lloyd Schultz sneaked over in the second period for the only Seward touchdown. The score came shortly after a Schultz-to-Dick Cooley pass play which covered 30 yards.

After Jim Griffin recovered a Bonnie fumble in the final period, Griffin flipped one to Cooley for 42 yards. Then Schultz smashed over the twin stripe, but a penalty nullified the effort. Line score:

St. Bonaventure 6 0 0 0—12
Seward 0 0 0 0—6
St. Bonaventure scoring: TD—Hoshor, Schmid.
Seward scoring: TD—Schultz.

Jim Hancock scored for Hastings in the third period. Hastings netted 312 yards, all but one yard gained by rushing. Kearney was good for 123 yards. Ten Kearney passes all were incomplete.

OU Meets Pitt In Home Debut

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—The University of Oklahoma opens its home football season against Pittsburgh Saturday a two-touchdown favorite to continue its record of not being beaten here in five years.

The Sooners are still smarting from a 21-21 tie with Colorado last week, which dropped them from fourth to 20th in the Associated Press poll.

Six fumbles and numerous mental lapses kept Oklahoma in hot water and only a touchdown drive in the closing minutes gave the Sooners

"Wow! With my EARS and your TAIL, wouldn't we be something?!"

Public School Enrollment At Record High

Final Lincoln Figures Set

Enrollment in Lincoln's 29 public schools has reached an all-time high, final figures released by Superintendent of Schools Steven A. Watkins disclosed Friday.

This year's enrollment is set at 14,716, an increase of 426 pupils from the previous peak enrollment of 14,290 set in 1939.

Enrollment for 1952-53 shows an increase of 866 students from the 1951-52 total of 13,850.

The biggest increase in the number of students occurred in the primary department—kindergarten through sixth grade. The total jumped from 8,585 to 9,328—an increase of 743 students.

Only four schools registered a decrease in the number of pupils attending this year. Capitol school's registration is less 34 students; Hayward, 61; Lake View, 87; and Willard, nine.

Lincoln High School's registration remained almost at the same level—with an increase this term of only one pupil. Enrollment is 1,668.

The Homebound School also increased one pupil—from 16 students last year to 17 this year.

All other public schools in the city show substantial increases in enrollment with the exception of Everett Junior High School which has the same total, 406 students, this year as last year.

The breakdown in the enrollment is as follows:

1951-52	1952-53
Kindergarten through 6th	8,585
Grades 7, 8, 9	2,855
Grades 10, 11, 12	2,410
	2,951
	2,437
